MARTIN DIES WILL SPEAK FRIDAY

The Washington cavalcade of infirmities got another recruit yesterday. He is 87 year old Andrew Jackson Houston. Governor O'Daniel took advantage of his alloted time on the program at San Jacinto to name Houston United States Senator from Texas to succeed the late Morris Sheppard. The shock was so great that the aged son of the great General Sam Houston, was overcome and had to be put to bed. The absurdity of the appointment knocked everybody else out of their seats as well. Houston, a life long republican, is too old to go to Washington. He will accept the appointment and collect the two months pay. It is not at all bad to think of him as care taker at the monument on San Jacinto. Here a hundred years ago his father, Sam Houston, fought one of the most decisive battles in history and made a republic of Texas. In these extraordinary times one thinks of the man who is Senator as someone on whom the President and certainly the nation may lean with assurance of strength, whose voice can be heard. This has nothing to do with Andrew Jackson Houston's character or ability. As a boy he knelt with his father at the bier of Andrew Jackson and looked upon the face of Old Hickory. He is a historian and quite traditionally a singular figure. The appointment does no credit to O'Daniel and does no particular honor to the memory of Sam Houston. Texas has come a long way since that night Sam Houston rode across Red River into the State on a borrowed horse. He altered the face of a continent and was more potent lying drunk among the stumps of Fort Smith than the average run of Social Security peddling politicians of today. If O'Daniel's appointement was made for expediency, he is unworthy of your support. If it was made in the belief Texas could be served he confesses an ignorance hitherto unrevealed by his wild ass from the desert policies in Texas. About all that can be compatably said is that right now Washington is a good place for old men who dodder around on canes with catarracts on their eyes. If A. J. should make it to Washington he can retreat with Roosevelt, stop with Stimson, knuckle with Knox and hide with Hull.

San Jacinto is a magic name in Texas history. Texans have felt its significance through a hundred years of freedom. This is San Jacinto day. The Houston Post gives us this to think about:

Santa Anna, it is well to remember at this time, was a dictator. It was his propensity for suppressing civil liberty that led the people of the Mexican province of Texas to rebel and to seek independence from Mexico.

It is probable that had the Mexican government under Santa Anna refrained from encrouching upon what the Anglo-Saxon settlers of Texas conceived to be their just rights, the revolution would have been postponed, although perhaps it would have come later for other reasons.

To have a clear understanding of the significance of the victory at San Jacinto, it is necessary to keep these facts in mind. Texans fought primarily, not merely to set up a nation independent of Mexico, but to set up a nation in which the rights of men, as set forth in the Constitution of the United States, and as guaranteed in the basic laws of other democratic nations, would be fully operative.

Texans, thus familiar with the principles at stake in the battle of San Jacinto, are in a peculiarly favorable position today to understand the plight into which numerous small, formerly free nations in Europe have been grouped by being overrun by the dictators of Europe, and to evaluate the importance of the effort that the democracies are putting forth to escape having the heavy hand of the tyrants laid upon them.

Early Texans knew what it was

TORNADO FISTED YOEMEN BRING BACK TROPHIES

They called it a Milam cyclone—the high school boxing team that swept to victory with 32 points in the Temple Telegram tournament held Friday and Saturday in Temple.

Red Bell, Putley Dierr and Bennie Harris each won championships and contributed to their team average to win the coveted trophy.

Trophies from the meet are on display at Fred Reno's Palace of Sweets. The boys want to leave them down town. They got no support from the school here or the athletic department, they say and they don't believe the school display case deserves the cups. At 2 p. m. on Saturday the boys still had no way to get to Temple.

Cameron schools pay for an maintain busses out of tax money. If the busses can be used for football and the band they should be used for other athletics in which teams from Yoe High enter. Such lack of interest results from lack of co-operation and organization.

The sensational fight of the evening was staged by Red Bell of Cameron and Lee Allen Poteet of Temple. These middleweights threw everything into the battle for the opening bell. Poteet was knocked down 3 times and fell several times more before Bell had finished the fight.

In the bantamweight finals Bennie Harris of Cameron took unanimous decision from Froggie Moore of Temple. Harris was trailing after two rounds but staged a brilliant finish when he knocked Moore down and took the round and fight by decisive margain.

Putley Dierr won a hard start from Milton Kegley of Temple. The boys mixed from the initial bell. Dierr was floored in first round but came back to beat his man decisively. He put Kegley down twice and had him on the ropes at the bell. It was Dierr's second one round victory of the day.

Kenneth Nabours was ill at home and had to forfeit his chance at a win to Henry Hutka of Temple in the flyweight class.

J. T. Leech, Rockdale lightweight, a hard hitter, was the sensation of his class and won a trophy in the finals by beating Ray Cox of Belton.

Byron Graham lost a close decision in the light heavyweight semi-finals to Marvin Crow of Belton. Crow went to the finals but lost to Tischler of Temple.

Milton Kegley of Temple scored a techical knockout over Charley Meinen of Cameron in the semi-finals among the welter weights. Putley Dierr knocked out W. R. Allen of Hamilton for a crack at the finals and then beat Kegley.

WILL GET STAMP DEAL COMMITTEE IS TOLD

Milam County will get the food stamp deal, the committee was told in Dallas on Tuesday.

There is no way to tell just when the deal will be given the county because a survey must be made to check up on facts submitted to the director.

If the application had been made some time ago the county would have been designated on April 16th. The conclusion is the county delayed too long for the application to be effective on that date, but every consideration will be given the matter.

The committee from the Chamber of Commerce headed by Emory B. Camp and Judge Jeff T. Kemp, C. R. Isaacs and Ted Ryan of Rockdale were in Dallas in the interest of the application.

DANIEL FOWLER DIES IN GEORGETOWN HOME

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 p. m. Sunday from the First Methodist church in Georgetown.

Mr. Fowler moved to Williamson county about 25 years ago. He had lived in Milam county for many years and was one of the leading stockmen of this section. After moving to Georgetown he continued his interests in the live stock business.

Congressman Martin Dies, foe of the Fifth Column and Chairman of the Congressional Committee on un-American activities, will speak in Cameron Friday night, April 25th, at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Dies is a candidate for United States Senator to succeed the late Morris Sheppard.

The election to be held in late June has brought a number of candidates into the field.

Mr. Dies as Chairman for the Committee on un-American Activities has become a national figure and carries the support of patriotic element throughout America. He has served with great distinction in Congress.

The work of the Dies Committee has unearthed Bunds, Communist and other conspiricies throughout the country. So far the government has done little to take advantage of the information Mr. Dies has handed over to the FBI but his work has been a revelation to the American people.

Mr. Dies' pet aversion is the CIO. He has shown that labor has been swallowed in some degree by radical elements and he is calling for action.

His address here Friday night will give the people a first hand report on his work and also will bring to the fore in the campaign the extent to which these influences will go in determining public opinion.

From many standpoints the campaign is going to be interesting. That Mr. Dies will be in the thick of the fight no one denies. What part the war will play in selecting a Senator will also be determined by Mr. Dies' participation in the campaign.

Local arrangements for the address calls for use of the court house lawn if the weather is fair, otherwise the District Court Room will be used.

WITH THE BAPTISTS

There was an enthusiastic group at church services last Sunday, and our church workers were so busy. One was heard saying, "I've never worked so hard in all my life, but you know I've never gotten so much joy out of anything as I have my church work." Our desire is for our other 650 members to have such zeal.

We are glad to make the following report: Sunday School attendance, 302; Training Union attendance, 76; Offering, $125; additions one conversion.

Our memorial service Sunday morning was well attended. O. L. Kidd and Mrs. J. C. Martin brought very fitting messages that really make us appreciate afresh the grand character of Mrs. T. S. Henderson.

Tuesday morning Mrs. Earl Moseley, W. M. U. president, and the Young People's directors went to Austin for a study course in Young People's Auxiliary. Y. W. A. met at the church last Thursday night and journeyed out to the lovely home of Mrs. Roy Hensley for the program. Following the program there was a social hour which was delightful to all.

Our Bible Lesson Sunday morning will be "The Early Church meeting Human Needs," Acts 4:32-35; 6:1-7. 11:00 Sermon, "Church Epidemic Sweeps Country." Training Union at 6:41. Be with us as we hear a program on "What it Takes to be a Christian in Japan." 7:45. "A Hard Case said the Deciples."

One way to break the habit of not attending church is to drop it.

Vegetable Laxative Makes Happy Friends

Here's a laxative that usually acts thoroughly as harsher ones but is a gentle persuader for intestines when used this way: A quarter to a half-teaspoonful of spicy, aromatic BLACK-DRAUGHT on your tongue tonight; a drink of water. There's usually time for a good night's rest, with a gentle, thorough action next morning relieving constipation's headaches, biliousness, sour stomach, bad breath.

BLACK-DRAUGHT is a splendid combination of vegetable ingredients, chief of which is an "intestinal tonic-laxative" that helps impart tone to lazy bowel muscles. It's economical. 25 to 40 doses: 25c.

"All Texas Selective Service boards have today been instructed to check their classification records, and to reclassify and induct in the order of their order numbers all registrants heretofore placed in Class IV-F as felons who come within the purview of this ruling," General Watt Page said.

Memorial Service for Mrs. T. S. Henderson At Baptist Church

Memorial Services for Mrs. T. S. Henderson were held Sunday at the First Baptist Church.

The service was held to commemorate her faithful service to the church and to perpetuate her memory in the life of this religious body formed among the pioneer Baptist movements in Texas.

Mrs. Henderson united with the Cameron church in 1885. She was a member of the building committee for the present brick building main auditorium which was built in 1895.

Dr. L. R. Scarborough, now one of the leading men in Baptist councils, held his first pastorate at Cameron and Mrs. Henderson helped the struggling young minister along and gave him many of his early inspirations as a Christian.

The service Sunday was one of the most impressive held in many years in the church. All her children were present except T. S. Henderson, Jr., Corpus Christi lawyer.

O. L. Kidd, law partner of the late T. S. Henderson and friend of the family, delivered an address.

Mrs. J. C. Martin paid tribute to Mrs. Henderson in a talk. She reviewed work done by Mrs. Henderson and her part in the progress of the church. It was largely through the benefactions of the Henderson family that the church was able to develop its property, some of which was a gift from Mrs. Henderson.

ONE SOUR NOTE . . .

but it's a great orchestra nevertheless

Even a great orchestra will make a musical mistake once in a while. And once in a while... out of the thousands of decent, law-abiding beer retailers in Texas... you'll come across one or two who operate disreputable establishments.

These "black sheep" retailers constitute a tiny minority. Yet they tend to drag down the good name of beer.

By arousing public indignation, such undesirable retailers endanger your right to enjoy good beer. They also endanger the benefits to the public that beer has made possible.

For example, in Texas beer has created 31,165 new jobs with an annual payroll of $22,076,182 and paid $2,273,968.64 in taxes last year.

The brewing industry wants "black sheep" retailers eliminated entirely. You can help us by patronizing only the reputable, legal places where beer is sold. And by reporting irregularities to the duly constituted law enforcement authorities.

20,000 MEN NOW IN ALASKAN BATTLE ZONE

Troop movements by the United States to the Phillipine Islands were described in Washington news as the largest since World War No. 1.

The government would not disclose the number of troops reaching the Phillipines Tuesday but it was officially confirmed that the transport was the largest ever undertaken since world war days and some said it was larger.

The number of soldiers in the Hawaiian Islands is known to be very large, perhapsa half million men.

At the same time it was disclosed also that 20,000 American soldiers are now in Alaska and the United States has built a big air base. The border of Soviet Russia almost touches that of America off Alaska.

Russia and Japan are both believed to be potential enemies of America and if the United States intends to fight for the Atlantic and to aid Britain the country must prepare to fight both Russia and Japan at the same time war is waged with Germany.

Knickerbocker, world famous correspondent and news commentator, speaking in Temple last night urged the people to wire their Congressmen and Seaators to vote immediately for a declaration of war on Germany.

This is the first all out campaign to arouse the American people that has come to light. A few intelligent Americans have known all along that the present Roosevelt policy would do no effective good.

The Greeks were preparing to fight another battle of Thermopalae as Germans pushed on for the kill in the Balkans.

It will be but a matter of days and perhaps hours. The British are evacuating. The war is over and the English are looking gloomily at their chances over Gibraltar. Since 1939 the British knew Hitler would try to take Gibraltar. So far as we know they have made no appreciable effort to defend the rock.

Unless Hitler elects to knock off Turkey next, the war will swing to France, Spain and Portugal. The Daily Herald heard shortly before noon that the government of Portugal plans to flee the country in case of Nazi attack. Dakar not far away from Portugal is the closest point to South America. The Germans will take that also.

The next war move is Spain. Turkey may escape but not likely. The Hitler machine is due to spearhead down to the Suez from North Africa, through Syria and at the same time attack Gibraltar.

British naval guns early Tuesday shelled for 42 minutes the harbor and city of Tripoli. A number of Axis ships were sunk.

Mary O'Neill Making Progress; Gets New Job and Promotion

Miss Mary O'Neill, now in Corpus Christi where she holds a position writes an interesting letter to the members of the Herald force and remembers with kind consideration The Midget where most of her work was done during the year she was an employe of The Herald.

Miss O'Neill thinks the Midget is better edited that the Corpus Christi Caller and says there is a marked difference in the style of writing. It was as a newspaper writer Miss O'Neill gained such valuable experience, enabling her to qualify in shorthand tests and make a grade of 99 out of 100 against contestants

She visited home folks here last week end and reported that she had been given a much better position with increased pay. She has been made secretary to M. M. Robinson, Superintendent of the Railway at the big Naval Air Base and in addition retains the position she originally took in the office of Mr. Broome, Construction Superintendent.

The Herald and all those responsible for its publication are proud of Mary. For more than 20 years The Herald has been helpful as a training center for valued employes and all have advanced rapidly. It was with genuine regret The Midget saw Miss O'Neill leave but feels grateful for having had a part in her success.

Dr. and Mrs. S. H. Burnett of Corsicana were in Cameron Monday. They visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Bigbee and also visited Mrs. Elizabeth Burnett in the Bigbee home.

BUSINESS WOMEN HEAR MRS. COLLIER

Mrs. Judd Collier of Mumford, was principal speaker at the luncheon for Business & Professional Women's Club at their annual Blue Bonnet banquet in Marlin, with Miss Marjorie Rogers of Marlin, presiding over a business session.

Mrs. Collier talked on "Important Legislation of the Day."

Following the program all were invited to the Flower Garden at Hotel Falls, and pictures were made of the assembly.

Immediately after the program all followed the Blue Bonnet Trail twelve miles out from Marlin where a comera program was given. There were acres and acres of solid blue Bonnets, and attractive girls in handsome evening dresses appeared in groups and singly when pictures were made.

One of the most unique scenes on display was the old fashioned ox wagon, with cover, where a family of early settlers in by gone costumes, with all kinds of farming implements of that day, rakes, hoes, plows, traces, kettles and camping outfit, were placed in and hung on the ox wagon. This was a merry family with a number of children in costumes of that day, and the center of attraction. Hard by stood the most up to date autos, showing progress during the past fifty years.

Those to attend from the Cameron Business & Professional Women's Club were: Misses Lilian Atkinson, Lala Meyers, Delphya Scott, Mesdames Theresa Robinson, Cora Cammer, Jackie Alexander and Dixie White.

Clyde Cummings visited relatives in San Gabriel over the week end.

LONE STAR GAS SYSTEM
DALLAS, TEXAS
1915 WOOD STREET
D. A. HULCY
PRESIDENT

April 16, 1941

To Employees of
Lone Star Gas System:

These are unusual times. At no other period in many years have we had the problems we face today.

No matter what other demands are made upon us we must work together faithfully, loyally, and with unity of purpose to render all possible assistance toward national defense. This is the Number One Job of every American citizen. Whatever is necessary, we are ready to do our part so that America's defense program will go steadily forward.

No other industry is more important than ours in the national program. Therefore, a full spirit of responsibility will serve each of us well in the demands which the national crisis is making and will continue to make on the natural gas industry collectively and individually. Let it be the firm resolve of each of us that whatever it takes we are ready for our responsibilities. When it is all over let it be said of you and Lone Star Gas System that we did not fail our country and our people in time of trouble.

D. A. HULCY
President

ALREADY natural gas is playing an important part in national defense activities in the Southwest, where army cantonments, airplane factories, and numerous other defense projects are dependent upon natural gas fuel service. Whatever it takes to get gas to these army camps and national defense plants, we will do it! Out goes the word to more than 3,600 employees and Lone Star Gas System rises to the occasion of the national emergency. Being accustomed to emergencies our employees with one accord subscribe to this policy of preparedness, "Whatever it takes—it shall be done."

Throughout the 4,800 miles of interconnected pipeline system and its associated facilities for dependable service—engineers, foremen, construction gangs, compressor station forces, drilling crews, supply depots, executives and personnel—all are alert to their newest responsibilities of public service.

to be ground under the heel of a military dictator. This generation of Texans, familiar with the story of their persecution and their successful battle to acquire national and individual freedom, can look sympathetically across the sea to the tyrant-ridden people of the conquered countries, and appreciate their longing for escape.

And they can give to the National government at Washington their earnest support in its efforts to effect a military and naval defense of the United States that will make sure that no foreign dictator sets foot on the soil of this Nation and imposes a tyranny upon the American people similiar to that which Santa Anna imposed upon the people of Texas when they were subject to his might.

* * * *

Secretary of State Cordell Hull will deliver an address Thursday. From Washington comes advance word he will attempt to arouse the American people to a consciousness of the dangers that lie around us. I make few predictions but in this instance I have in mind to say Mr. Hull will say everything short of saying anything. All measures short of war is a policy insisted upon by President Roosevelt and is mainfested in the lease-lend bill which he said would do the job. Americans confidently expected a new tempo to be reached under the broad powers granted the President. Actually things have grown worse and the lease-lend bill is no more effective than the neutrality proclamation. We remember also the President sent a long message to King Peter of Yugoslavia, stating that if the Yugoslavs elected to fight Germany the United States would give every possible aid. Yugoslavia entered the war against Nazi agression and resisted the invasion. Now Yugoslavia has blood on her face, a beaten little nation maybe never again to know independence. We have said the same thing to China and invited all nations who will to join in a war on the Axis, promising aid. The American people are beginning to lose faith in such a policy, Now the question of convoys is up. The President has, so far as we know, frowned on such a thing. The convoy will not be effective either. It is going to take something more than a convoy. Actually the United States must enter the war an active belligerant. Nothing short of this will secure the Atlantic. The question is not so much the salvation of Britain. It is whether we shall secure our own shores. The advantage of entering now is the active aid of what is left of the British fleet and empire. The President's mind is a troubled one these days. Can the cause be grief and sadness over an internal situation? Have eight years of liberalism translated into the more abundant life, concessions to labor and war upon free trade, rendered this country impotent? The average American wants to know whether this country is strong or weak. Everything short of war is not good enough. It might as well be said whatever the consequences. If its war let's fight it.

Girls Are Advised To Build-Up For Relief

Lack of knowledge causes many a weak, undernourished girl a lot of suffering!

Many others, however, know how the headaches, nervousness, cramp-like pain of functional dysmenorrhea due to malnutrition are helped by the proper use of CARDUI.

Some take it a few days before and during "the time," to help ease periodic distress. But CARDUI'S principal use is to help increase appetite; stimulate the flow of gastric juice; so aid digestion, assist in building up physical resistance and thus help reduce periodical distress. Women have used CARDUI for over 50 years.

Under present laws kidnaping may bring the death penalty. Prison terms are also applicable in such cases.

Criminal District Attorney W. A. (Bill) Morrison, after considerable investigation of the case filed the charges.

On April 1st, W. T. Pierson, sewing machine agent at Rockdale, and a youth, Edward Jones, made a trip to Hearne. Rutherford went along. On their way back they came through Cameron. Leaving this city they took Highway 36 and turned south across the River by way of Minerva.

As the Pierson car drew near the Horton Filling Station about one mile north of Rockdale, Rutherford suddenly threw his left arm around the neck of Jones and pressed a knife to his throat. He told Pierson he had to have the car. He told them he would leave the car in Thorndale.

Stopping the car Pierson got out and in a few minutes they had overpowered Rutherford and taken the knife away from him.

Two years ago Rutherford commited robbery in Thorndale. He place a black skirt over his head. cut holes for his eyes to see and with a piece of pipe entered a filling station. He told the employes to stand against the wall, saying it was a stick-up. After a few minutes he left.

Rutherford, according to his confession, said the plan had worked and although he did not take money or anything when he first held up the station, he retraced his steps and re-entered the place, forcing the employes to stand aside and took $21.

Rutherford left for San Antonio, spent the money and was later arrested and convicted of the crime.

Misses Jewel and Sarah Vickers of Sandy Ridge were Cameron visitors on Tuesday.

A SPEECH YOU WILL NEVER FORGET!

GREEK SOIL PAID FOR IN HIGH TOLL OF DEAD

German tanks were impeded today by their own dead lieing in heaps along the mountain passes and roads near Mt. Olympus and other sections of the 150 mile front along which a decisive battle is being fought for the fate of the Balkans.

There was little doubt over the outcome of the Balkan war.

Finally the Nazis will drive the Allies out but the British and Greeks were selling every inch of Greek soil at a high toll in German blood.

Hitler, 52 years old, was spending his birthday at the front. He must have been proud of his men for they fought. They kept going, wave on wave. By reason of overwhelming numbers they would eventually overcome their opponents.

The Swastika was hoisted over the ancient temple of Greek Gods near Olympus. This infurated the Greeks but all they could do was fight and retire.

The British and Greeks are retiring systematically and orderly.

There has been no rout and no evacuation.

The Germans were stopped, thrown back and defeated in the great battle of Wednesday. But recovering they came on at the Greek and British positions and finally had won a precious advance near Olympus.

The Greek government formed after the death on Wednesday of the Premier, announced it would move from Greek soil in the event the war is lost.

Ribbenthrop and Von Papen, ambassador to Turkey, were striving desperately to get Turkey in the axis. Russia had declined an invitation to join.

Spain will join up with Germany, it was announced in Berlin. The next grand scale attack is Gibraltar.

The RAF bombed Berlin again Friday night. Rome will be be bombed if the Germans bomb Cario or Athens.

The British sunk 19,000 tons of German shipping in the war waters around the coast and the Germans responded by a similar toll of British shipping.

The British were holding their lines in Africa.

GIRL SCOUTS MEET

Girl Scouts met on Wednesday evening April 16th, in the Girl Scout Little House. The girls are soon to have a sign on the house to read as follows: "Girl Scout Little House." This sign will be made by Mrs. C. Kelly.

Bill Durham of the Temple Telegram in Temple was a business visitor here on Wednesday.

N. A. Heath of Davilla was here on business Wednesday.

The announcement of the approaching wedding was made on Saturday, April 12 from 4 to 6 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Helen Peel at Port Sullivan, sister of the bride elect.

Decorations for the home were made from lilac and bridal wreath with the Easter motif predominating. The diversion of the afternoon was 42. Prize for high score was a picture and was won by Mrs. Bob Ford.

Refreshments were sandwiches, pickles, cookies and ice tea. Plate favors were Easter chicks which carried the announcement "Vera to Charles May 3."

Guests were: Misses Mavis McNeel, Marjorie Jane Cooper, Florine Ellison, Doris Peel, Mrs. Edwin McNeel, Mrs. Ben Burns, Mrs. Bob Ford and Mrs. Joe Bailey. The hostess was assisted in serving by Misses Nell and Kittie Bob Mayes.

Old Town Clock Not New Deal Time Piece Getting in Bad Shape

The old town clock going to bat for almost a half century, tolling the hours of day and night, is all but out at the plate.

Too many strikes.

Every since the New Deal decipitated the court house and the clock was installed with new deal hook ups it has been more or less a lot of trouble. When its one o'clock it strikes 17 and when its 12 it sometimes don't strike at all.

G. E. Lafton, representing the International Time Recording Division is in Cameron to make repairs. The clock has been worked off and on and every since they pulled down the tower, but has never operated satisfactorily for long periods.

Mrs. W. M. Fanning has returned home from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Leroy Raley in San Angelo.

A variety of spring flowers were used in the reception room while in the dining room the table, spread with beautiful cutwork cloth had a colorful and unsual centerpiece in the form of an Easter nest of sweet peas in which lay three large eggs upon which were embossed the words "Kathleen"—"Mutt"—May 4, 1941." White tapers in silver holders stood on either side to complete the picture.

Mrs. J. E Shinn of Austin invited the guests to the dining room where seated hostesses served the dainty cake squares, mints, tea and coffee. Hostesses during the first hour were Misses Alice Virginia Mebane, Joe Margaret Masur; the second hour, Mrs. Ben P. Buick SPECIAL 6-passenger Sedanet, $1006. White sidewall tires extra*

WOULDN'T a sprinter or a long-distance runner look silly trying to race with a clothespin firmly clamped on his nose!

Yet, in a sense, something fairly close to that happens in nearly every car that lacks Buick's sensational Compound Carburetion.†

For your engine has to breathe in huge quantities of air to be mixed with gasoline before it is burned in the cylinders.

But single-carburetor fuel supply systems can handle only a given volume of air.

To that extent, then, an ordinary engine has a clothespin on its nose—a limitation on air supply for big power operation.

We remove that clothespin very simply—by having two carburetors; one that handles all casual driving smoothly and efficiently, another to jump in with more air and more fuel when you call for extra power by stepping on the gas treadle!

Simple? Very simple indeed.

And simply marvelous in the extra FIREBALL wallop it gives you and in the gas savings you get—as much as 10% to 15% over previous Buicks with the same-size engines.

Maybe you'd better go see your Buick dealer now.

GERALD C. MANN

Will Open Campaign At Sulphur Springs

Caravans left Sulphur Springs this week inviting towns, cities and counties to send delegations to that city Saturday when Gerald C. Mann will open his campaign for the United States Senate to fill the place left vacant by the death of Morris Sheppard.

Gerald Mann was born in Sulphur Springs, went to school there, worked there on his grand father's farm and in the local hotel, and there launched in 1938 his successful campaign to become Attorney General.

The day's program will climax with Mann's speech from 8:30 to 9:30 p. m. which will be broadcast in its entirety over the Texas quality network and over KRLD in Dallas.

The speaking program, held on a large platform in the Sulphur Springs public square, will begin at 8 p. m Justice Clyde Grissom of Eastland of the Eleventh Civil Court of Appeals, will introduce Gerald Mann. Several other five-minute speakers will be on the program.

Twenty-five high school bands will be on the program officially at 3 p. m. and will give concert throughout the afternoon and until 7 p. m. At this time the bands will lead a parade of all visiting delegations.

Repeating on a large scale the torchlight march which featured the 1938 campaign opening, the parade will be followed by a torchlight cavalcade of approximately 250 old settlers of Hopkins County.

The air above Sulphur Springs will be filled with huge baloons, lighted in the evening by powerful searchlights which will illuminate the city and heavens for miles.

BRITISH ARE QUICK TO RETALIATE FOR RAID

Berlin has been bombed by British planes in what the Admiralty in London said was the largest scale attack yet made by England since the war began.

The German capital was said to have been reached and the British airmen dropped bombs in the center of the city with resulting great damage. The Germans admitted the raid which is unusual. They usually deny the British have reached the center of the city and always minimized the results of anything the British may do.

The raid was a reprisal for the bombing of London.

The British people were crying out for revenge. "Let's show them we can murder too," were the cries from Britons in London.

The Bristish were using hugh 4 motored bombers and an entirely new type of high explosive bomb.

The new bombs are believed to have been made in the United States. Also was suggested the new 4 motored bombers may have been flown over from America.

The sensational, destructive raid on Berlin, topped a week of sordid news and offered the only highlight in favor of the Allies.

Yugoslavia, according to Berlin is now out of the war. There has been no confirmation from Britain, Greece or Yugoslavia, but the surreder is taken as a fact.

The full force of German military might is now moving down on Greece.

The Greeks and British were falling back. They were taking a heavy toll in German dead, but as a Greek dispatch explained, for every inch they take we are making them pay heavily.

The situation in Africa was somewhat improved with British reinforcements coming up and the British navy violently challenging supply lines across the Mediterranean.

A. E. Brooker of Milano was a business visitor in Cameron Friday.

MAY GET ACTION ON AIRPORT HERE SOON

Although the people here were asked to be patient about the proposed airport, many inquiries are being directed regarding the progress and chances to obtain the field.

There have been no developments. The local committee from the Chamber of Commerce has done everything possible and the entire matter now rests with the army.

It is encouraging to note that the corporaion to build the field likes Cameron and would like to invest in a field here

Encouraging reports were made when the committee visited Randolph Field. The authorities there also like Cameron and although they made no commitments it was interesting to know the reaction at that important terminal of the long line the committee must travel to get final hearing.

When approvals are made that will mean another favorable development.

The Herald has heard un-officially that the government now contemplates the establishment of a number of fields for preliminary training.

Cameron has some keen competition. In view of the national emergency it was believed an early decision might be made in favor of Cameron.

Walter F. Plocek, Jr., who volunteered for service in the United States navy, spent several days here this week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Plocek, Sr. He has been transfered to Corpus Christi naval air base and will read the Herald each week. Walter volunteered early, following in the footsteps of his father who is a world war veteran.

Miss Lucy Turner and Jack Wallace of Houston were guests of Miss Mary Ellen Cottle for the week end, at the Milam Hotel.

Henry Lippman of the Lipmann store here, visited his mother in San Antonio Thursday and Friday.

Otto Mentz of San Gabriel was a Cameron visitor on Thursday.

EASTERN STAR

Thursday evening the officers of the Eastern Star Chapter held a practice preparing for initiation next week, and closed with being guests of Mrs. W. G. Harsha to a delicious refreshment plate in the dining room at Masonic Hall; at this time Mrs. Annie Woolley-Longmire, worthy matron and a recent bride, was surprised with a lovely crystol shower by the officers of the chapter. This came as a complete surprise to Mrs. Longmire, who responded with many thanks for the lovely gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Ike Tarver, Jr., of Muskogee, Okla., Jack Taylor of Houston, all grand children of Mrs. Ike Looney were in Cameron Sunday to visit Mrs. Looney who recently celebrated her 88th birthday. Two sons, I. O. Looney of Bartlett and O. R. Looney of Ben Arnold were also here. The visit was made in the Dr. G. B. Taylor home in Cameron.

GAS HAS BIG PART IN DEFENSE PROGRAM

Dallas, April 24.—Gas helps put bombers in the sky. In its own efficient way, this fuel is doing a bang-up job of helping Uncle Sam to roll armament production into high gear, according to discussions scheduled for the national convention of the natural gas section, American Gas Association, in Dallas May 5-7. This and similar topics will be presented under the general theme of "The Part Natural Gas Is Playing in National Defense."

The natural gas industry of the nation, with several thousand visitors, will be represented at the convention.

From hardening intricate parts of machine guns to the final heat treating of tiny parts for gigantic bombers, specially designed gas furnaces are speeding national defense production at an ever-increasing pace. Equipment developed for peace-time uses through co-operative research and engineering under sponsorship of the American Gas Association, is rapidly being put to work to speed production war industries.

North American Aviation, Inc., warplane plant between Dallas and Fort Worth, is an example of natural gas service to national defense projects. Supplying all fuel requirements at the $7,500,000 factory, the Lone Star Gas Company's 4,800 miles of interconnected pipe lines assure an adequate supply of gas under all conditions short of a general disaster. Another example is at Camp Barkley, eight miles southwest of Abilene, where 19,000 officers and men of the 45th Division depend upon natural gas for all fuel requirements, from heating water for shaving to generating steam for heating the sixty-six buildings that comprise the 710-bed hospital area. The problems overcome in supplying these national defense plants and camps are to be studied at the Dallas convention.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

"Probation After Death" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, April 27th.

The Golden Text is: "God hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us by his power" (I Cor. 6:14.)

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses" (I Timothy 6.12.)

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Heaven is not a locality, but a divine state of Mind in which all the manifestations of Mind are harmonious and immortal, because sin is not there and man is found having no righteousness of his own, but in possession of 'the mind of the Lord,' as the Scripture says.' (Page 291.)

Dr. Thomas R. Lutner of Lawton, Oklahoma, former resident here, and son of Mrs. W. L. Lutner, is in Cameron Friday on business. With him is Mr. Wise and both are looking after oil interests, it was understood here.

ALLIES WILL SOON EVACUATE ALL GREECE

Germany was nearing the end of the bitterly fought Balkan campaign Monday.

The armies of Adolph Hitler were within 100 miles of Athens the Greek Capital.

Greek and British armies, taking a heavy toll of German soldiers during the two weeks of fighting were yielding ground. Out numbered 6 to 1 the Allies were gradually shortening the line of defense and there was indication that evacuation would begin within the next few days if not sooner.

There was no indication that either Greece or Britain could long hold out or expect anything like a military victory. It was regarded as certain that only a miracle could prevent total loss of both armies.

The rich oil fields of Iraq have been occupied by British and Greek troops. King Alexander of Greece will move his government.

Athens said there has been no break through by the German forces.

Athens will no doubt be surrendered.

The next campaign for Hitler is Spain. The Germans will seize the coast of Spain and Portugal and from there will take Dakar, maybe with the tacit agreement of the French. As will be remembered General DeGaulle attempted to size Dakar but was requlsed. Dakar is the port nearest to South America. From this point German U-Boat bases could supply the submarines for operation against Atlantic commerce.

The German press began its usual campaign over Spain. That country is being fed by America and Britain. France also receiving food from America by permission of the British, is aiding Germany.

Washington was stagnated as usual.

With a fair egg price assured throughout the summer months, get your hens started on a good laying mash. A & M college says that a grain fed hen does not lay as well as mash fed hens, because all the hens energy is taken in digesting the food, but if you feed soft feed you will be able to make your present layers produce until October. At that time chances are you will have some new pullets ready to go to work for you. Feed is cheap. Eggs are bringing good money. Cooking School News

VOLUME 1. CAMERON, TEXAS, APRIL 28, 1941. NUMBER 1.

3 DAY SCHOOL TO OPEN APRIL 30

BAND HAS LONG RECORD OF BRILLIANT TRIUMPHS

Cameron's Nationally Famous Yoe High School Band is the central unit around which has revolved for years such activities as now advanced in the three day Free Cooking School to be held in Cameron on April 30 and May 1 and 2.

The Band, city's No. 1 Pride, has so filled the people with admiration, they are always working to improve it and to give it adaquate financial support. Briefly that is the cause for this great cooking school enlisting Miss Albertine Berry, daily lecturer, and widely known home economist, with the Community Natural Gas Company.

The amazing record made by the band under the leadership of Francis Cox, constitutes a 10 year period of triumphs that have brought wide notice to the city and benefits incalcuable to hundreds of students who have graduated from the school of music and Yoe High.

Francis Cox came to Cameron in 1931 and the original group known as the Yoe High School Band, was organized in the school year of 1931-32 as the Cameron Municipal Band which was supported in part by the city. The membership was then made up of adults and students from the school under the able direction of Francis Cox.

The band entered the first state contest at Mexia in 1933 and won first prize in the First Year band class. Returning to the state contest in 1934 the band again won first place in Second Year Band class.

In 1925 the municipal class of bands was eliminated from the contests. The local group, in order to participate eliminated all men members, and with 35 children entered the school band class against bands with as many as 60 pieces. Under the new rating system at that time installed in contests the little band from Cameron, that was later to win nation's acclaim, entered and made Third Division as a school band when it was not a school group.

In 1936 the dream of many was realized when the city government placed the band in the school system for the first time. Mr. Cox went to work. He recruited 51 boys and girls. That year the band made Second Division in Concert Playing and third division in Sight Reading.

By 1937 the band was coming along with marked distinction under Mr. Cox. The band had 70 members in 1937 and again rated Second Division in concert playing but made a rating of First Division in sight reading, a rating which has been made by the band in every succeeding contest since that date. It was the first year for marching contests and the band made Third Rating.

In the district contest at Mexia in 1938 the band rated First Division in concert playing, First Division in sight reading and second in marching. At the state contest in 1937 held at Waco the band made First Division in all three, Concert playing, sight reading and marching.

The real triumph came in 1939 when the band won national recognition. That year at the state contest the band made First Division in all three events again then went to the National Contest held in Abilene where it ranked First Division in all three events, concert playing, sight reading and marching.

In 1940 under rules made by the Association and going direct to the National Contests the band made Second Division in concert, first in sight reading and second marching.

In 1941 contest which has just ended the band scored perhaps its greatest triumph of all its brilliant history. The band scored First Division ratings in all three events with an honorary "plus." First rating in sight reading came under most complimentary circumstances because it was left to the judge's discretion. The band's marching rating was also given special commendation after it had won First Division.

Albertine Berry Demonstrates National Defense Menus In Three Days Cooking School at Cameron

Albertine Berry of Dallas, nationally known home economist, will conduct the three-day cooking school to open in Cameron April 30, sponsored by the Band Parents. Home economics director for Community Natural Gas Company, Miss Berry recently was named chairman of the American Gas Association home service committee. She is well-known to women of this section through her weekly home service broadcasts over WFAA-WBAP and KRLD. A graduate of North Texas State Teachers College at Denton, she has been active in home demonstraton work for more than nine years, having conducted cooking schools in most of the larger cities of Texas, including Dallas, Fort Worth, Waco, San Antonio and Galveston. Miss Berry will feature national defense menus designed to save time, money and effort. Here she demonstrates the latest development in gas top burners. Scientifically designed to direct just the right amount of heat to foods, this economy speed burner cannot wear or burn out. It saves fuel, food and time.

BAND PARENTS AND CITY SEND CORDIAL WELCOME

Cameron's Free Annual Cooking School for the first time sponsored entirely by local people and made possible by the co-operation of Cameron business men and women, will be opened at 2:30 p. m. on Wednesday, April 30th.

Thereafter on Thursday and Friday, May 1 and 2 the school will be opened at 2:30 in the afternoon.

This school is Cameron's welcome to you and to others who will attend the school sponsored by the Cameron Band Parents Association for the benefit of the Cameron Band.

The Association feels it has scored a triumph in bringing Albertine Berry, nationally known home economist to Cameron for the school.

The Community Natural Gas Co., through its local manager, J. R. Bush, has made available the facilities of their store in Cameron to stage this three day school.

There will be no admission charges and many free gifts. The school will feature National Defense Menus and constitutes the best opportunity in years to know of the advanced methods in cooking.

The school is regarded as doubly important because of the coming need for co-operation with the government for defense. Foods have always played a vital role in war times as well as peace times.

The sessions of the school are to be held in the afternoon so that housewives may attend. It is a school operated by home people and you are cordially invited to attend.

NATIONAL DEFENSE IS EMPHASIS OF MENUS

Menus designed to aid national defense by sustaining the health of the nation through nutritious and perfectly balanced meals at minimum cost will be presented by Albertine Berry of Dallas, Community Natural Gas Company hame economics director, at the cooking school in Cameron April 30, and May 1 and 2, sponsored by the Band Parents Assn. Classes will be held in the ware house back of the gas company office from 2 until 5 p. m.

Through the use of modern gas ranges, Miss Berry will show housewives how they can clip hours off their day and have more time to participate in national defense and British war relief activities. Pointing to food conservation, she will show ways to make left-overs appetizing.

"Vigorous health is necessary to the country's welfare and morals," Miss Berry said, "especially under the emergency we face today. War against inadequate diet and its accompanying ailments was started by home economists of the gas industry long before national defense was imminent. This work is being accelerated to spread the gospel of healthful food preparation and planning, so necessary under the extreme conditions we are meeting now."

Miss Berry is chairman of the American Gas Association home service committee. She pointed out that the federal government already has registered thousands of home economists to serve in the mational defense program, and in case of war, to enlarge upon these activities as a means to protect the health and morals of the nation.

"The army is our first line of defense," Miss Berry said. "It is important that our second line of defense—men, women and children at home, at school and in industry—be well fed with healthful diet. Our responsibility is to help build a healthier and stronger nation. 25 per cent of the men drafted in 1940 were turned down because of poor health."

Miss Berry outlined methods by which housewives, home economists, dieticians, etc., can function under, the national defense program.

"We can co-operate with local, county, state and federal agencies interested in good health, proper nutrition and food probelms," she said. "Any work that will build up and keep the good health of our children—our nation of the future—is to be particularly recommended.

"One of the best illustrations of what home economists can do in the defense program is what is being done today in England. The government is depending upon home service women to keep British homemakers informed about what foods are available and the best ways of preparing them in order to keep national good health at the highest possible level."

Home service workers can help in the present emergency by the following ways, as suggested by Miss Berry: (1) Interpreting home economics service for all income families especially for families with low incomes. (2) Dispensing information on food and nutrition. (3) Assisting in menu planning for school lunches. (4) Promotion of the use of surplus commodities by families needing and eligible to receive them.

"I wish to express on behalf of the Band Parents Association my deep gratitude for this manifestation of interest in our great band. Food Stamp Deal Is Due Early In Summer

Thanks to Emory B. Camp we are able to keep the people posted on the progress of plans for the Food Stamp Deal in Milam county.

Mr. Camp gives us very encouraging information on developments. In Fort Worth where the delegation met with James S. Allen, Regional Director, practical assurance was given the deal would go through.

Considerable time will be necessary and it was believed the stamp deal would not be available until this summer.

The most encouraging development was a letter from Congressman W. R. Poage to Mr. Camp, pledging his full co-operation. "Milam county is next on my order of preference and I believe that I can sincerely encourage you," said Congressman Poage.

Department of Agriculture Announces Plan To Increase Supplies of Some Foods in U. S.

The Department of Agriculture announced today an expansion of the Ever-Normal Granary Program in to a food program designed to assure ample supplies for the United States, Great Britain and other nations resisting aggression.

Under the expanded program, the production of pork, dairy products, eggs and poultry will be stimulated through the support of prices over the period ending Jun 30, 1943, at levels remunerative to producers. Other phases of the program include:

1. Continuation of the existing corn loan program for 1941 and 1942.

2. Continuation of the policy of making loan corn available to producers at the loan rate plus certain carrying charges.

3. Allowing producers in the commercial corn producing area to increase corn acreage up to their usual acreage. These producers would not receive corn payments.

4. No corn marketing quotas for the 1941 crop.

Assuming continuation of existing price relationships and taking seasonal price variations into account, the Department will make purchases in the open market to support long term prices (Chicago basis) at levels approximotely as follows:

Commodities

Hogs cwt	$9.00
Dairy products (basis of butter lb.)	.31
Chickens lb.	.15
Eggs dozen	22

It was pointed out that these prices would be subject to the customary commercial differentials for market grades and qualities.

The Government' purchases in the open market will be used to accumulate reserve supplies of food. These supplies can be used for transfer to the British and other countries under the provisions of the Lend-Lease Act; for release upon the market in case of unwarranted speculative price increases; to meet requests from the Red Cross for shipment to war refugee areas and for direct distribution through school lunch programs or through state welfare departments to public aid families. Arrangements are also being made for a full and complete co-ordination of those purchases with those being made for our armed forces.

Under the program, farmers will be urged to: (a) increase pork production by feeding hogs to heavier weights and by increasing farrowing of pigs: (b) increase dairy production by feeding cows more grain and by milking more cows: (c) encourage additional production of poultry by increasing the size of flocks.

Although producers in the commercial corn areas will not receive corn payments or be eligible for corn loans if they plant up to their usual acreage, there will be no reduction in other payments of the usual acreage of corn is not exceeded.

The Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938 provides that the Secretary of Agriculture may remove operation of marketing quotas in the case of national emergency, or because of a material increase in export demand.

"Obviously," Secretary of Agriculture Claude R. Wickard said, "The comparatively few producers in commercial corn areas who wish to plant up to their usual acreage of corn in order to have feed for increased dairy, poultry and livestock production will wish, and should have at this time, assurances that there will be no corn marketing quotas on the 1941 crop. Because of the ample feed supplies on hand in the country, however, most producers should plant within their corn allotments.

"It is time," Secretary Wickard said, "to begin coverting our ever-normal granary supplies into ever-normal food supplies.

"We have conducted intensive studies of the needs of the United States, England and other democracies. We beleive we have a sufficient supply of most agricultural commodities. Larger supplies of some pork, dairy and poultry products will be needed, however, in the United States, in the British Isles and in Europe for several years, irrespective of the duration of the war. In Europe foundation herds and flocks are being rapidly depleted. Even in normal times, many Americans need more of these protective food products. Because of the Ever Normal Granary, fed supplies are abundant and farmers will only be too glad to increase their production of pork, dairy products, poultry and eggs if prices make it profitable to grow more of these foods. Consumers should realize that fair returns to farmers for the food products mentioned are the best assurance, not only of ample supplies but, in the long run, of fair prices to consumers.

"This ever-normal food supply program will, we feel, stimulate sufficient increase in production to insure that food supplies will be adequate for all needs here and abroad. Consequently, there should be no danger of run-away markets for any of these food products. Should unwaranted speculation drive prices up to unduly high levels at any time, the supplies in the hands of the Government will be released to stabilize prices and maintain them at reasonable levels. Under this ever-normal food program, consumers will be protected and farmers will benefit by selling more products at fairer prices than those that have prevailed during the past few years."

The Secretary said the plan to increase the production of food emphasized that national farm programs are adjustment programs in every sense of the word.

"Since these programs began, we have pointed out that they could be used to increase production," Secretary Wickard said, "and that farmers would like nothing better than an opportunity to prove that fact.

"Furthermore, the soil conservation that has taken place during the past eight years has put farmers in a position to produce more and to produce it without the soil destruction that took place during the first World War.

"I do not want this food plan to be misunderstood. This action does not mean that we should scrap our farm programs and rush out to produce more of every farm commodity without regard for our soil, or what this country and the other democracies will need. To do this would be to repeat the mistakes of the first war and would injure everyone concerned.

You'll never spend a more profitable three afternoons that await you at the Cooking School to be held here beginning Wednesday, April 30, and continuing through May 1 and 2.

WPA GRANT

ing telegram from Congressman W. R. Poage early Saturday:

"Just secured Presidential Approval of WPA Project for improvements to sanitary sewer system throughout Cameron, consisting of installing sewer lines, construction of manholes and clean outs involving $17,984, actual construction. Awaits order from San Antonio office.

W. R. POAGE,
Congressman.

Mayor Smith was elated over the telegram which brought the go ahead signal for more public improvements in Cameron.

This additional sewer improvement will give the city a much needed extension of the sanitary system and will bring to a high standard the city's development.

Now that the street paving program is under way it is consdered fortunate that the sewer extension plan can be made in advance of laying paving eventually in all sections to be included in the new sewer extension areas.

Mayor Smith hopes to have the project plans well in hand for commencement of work in the near future.

Here is the famous Yoe High School Band and its equally famous director, Francis Cox. All Cameron is proud of the record of this band and the co-operation mainfested in its success is an inspiring example of community effort. The Band has become nationally known for its record of contest winnings. V. L. Luckett is President and has contributed greatly to its success.

Junior-Senior Yoe High School banquet was held Friday, April 25th in the basement of the First Methodist church.

An "Anchors Away" program was attractively featured in the program and in the decorations of the hall.

Welcome address was given by "Shipmate Captain, Mode," response by "Admiral Kidd." "Bon Voyage" by Mr. Wiese. Class Prophecy, Elmir Knipp; "Aloha Oe" First Mates, Loretta Polansky and Gloria Halberdier.

The tables were laid with snowy white lines, place cards were tiny blue canoes with white sails. The speakers table was centered with a tall fashioned minature lighthouse. Anchors rested down the center of the table that were laid with white runners with blue lines, and large anchors hung on the walls and post in the dining room. A large size sail boat was anchored near the speakers stand, with sails hoisted for a merry voyage. Beautiful red, blue and white flowers in containers were seen at points of vantage, adding a springtime setting.

A delicious spring fried chicken was served with all accessories, by the ladies of the Methodist church.

Following the banquet all repaired to the high school Gym where dancing was enjoyed for the rest of the evening.

Try Spring Lamb

For some reason lamb has always been linked traditionally with Spring. At any rate, there is plenty of lamb on the market right now, making this meat an especially attractive buy. It not only offers a variety of cuts, but, beccause of its flavor, combines well with many spring vegetables and fruits.

One advantage of lamb, which home-makers especially appreciate, it the fact that all cuts are tender and can be easily cooked. Because of its tenderness lamb is excellent for broiling and roasting, but for budget meals and variety, it is equally good braised or stewed.

Some cuts of lamb are best cooked by one method and some by another. The following chart will help you in making your selection.

Roasting: Leg, lion, rib, shoulder and crown.

Broiling: Lion, rib and shoulder shops, leg steaks and patties.

Stewing and Braising: Neck, breast and shank.

Serve lamb either very bot or very cold, but never lukewarm, if you would have it as it is best.

MILK INFORMATION BULLETIN
BY
GEORGE W. COX, State Health Officer.

In the United States we use more than fifty billion quarts of milk a year. It is one of, if not the most universally used foods. Milk and cream, either by themselves or in combination with other food stuffs, make up about one-sixth, by weight of all the food eaten by the average American family. Dr. E. V. McCollum of John Hopkins University stated that "The people who have achieved, who have the best strong, vigorous people, who have reduced their infant mortality, who have the best trades in the world, who have an appreciation for art, literature, and music, who are progressive in science and in every activity of the human intellect, are the people who have used liberal amounts of milk and its products."

Public Health Problem

However, the fundamental necessity for public health milk control is to protect health by preventing milk-borne diseases and to promote health by increasing individual consumption. It is generally conceded that milk is one of the most important of all human foods, because it contains some of practically all elements which man requires for his sustenance, Including certain vitamins. It constitutes his sole dependence throughout first year of life, and is one of the most important foods for growing children as well as for the sick and aged.

But while milk is second to no other food as an item of diet, yet it is second only to water as a vehicle of disease transimission. Diseases that are usually transmitted through impure milk are bovine tuberculosis, typhoid fever, scarlet fever, septic sore throat, diptheria, undulant fever, and enteritis, a common infection of infancy. According to the U. S. Public Health Service this disease "annually accounts for 65,000 deaths in the United States of children under the age of two years."

According to the statistics of milk-borne epidemics in Texas reported to the State Health Department covering the period of ten years from 1928 to 1937, inclusive, there were 15 outbreaks, twelve of which were caused from grade D or unsupervised milk, with 601 cases of sickness and ten deaths, and three from grade A raw milk with only 27 cases and no deaths. No milk-borne outbreaks were reported from pasteurized milk. Most of these outbreaks were in cities with no milk supervision.

In order to produce safe milk, it is necessary to use every precaution to prevent disease-producing bacteria from getting into the milk since it is impossible to get them out in case they do, and the only remedy would be to boil or pasteurize the milk.

The United States Public Health Service Standard Milk Ordinance is the only uniform milk sanitation program in the United States. It provides a standard which is designed to produce clean milk and to prevent its infection by disease-producing organisms during the production and subsequent handling, and for its labeling according to grade. The standard set is for grade "A" milk with provisions for three lower grades, "B," "C," and "D." Because of the fact that protective measures against tuberculosis, typhoid fever, enteritis and other diseases are not required for grades "C" and "D" milk, these are considered potentially dangerous. Items of cleanliness are also not required. Considering these facts, housewives should use only grade "A" milk for their children. It is also the responsibility of school boards to see to it that school children are provided with grade "A" milk. Some people buy lower grades of milk because they are cheap, but these grades may prove to be very expensive in sickness, doctor's bills, and lowered efficiency. Realizing these facts, a large number of Texas cities are prohibiting the sale of grade "C" and "D" milk.

Butterscotch Ice Box Cookies

Work 1-2 cup butter or margarine until creamy, add

1 egg, slightly beaten. Mix well and add
